Buasi Lao Day means a day to improve students' scores after the examination. The students were divided into 4 groups according to the comparative teachings of His Majesty the Lord Buddha.

1. The group that passed the exam - complete work (the lotus is out of the water) = got freedom.
2. The group that passed the exam - the work was left behind (the lotus was filled with water) = had to do the work. 3. The group did not pass the exam - but the work was completed (underwater lotus) = must take the exam to adjust scores. 4. The group didn't pass the exam - work is stuck (the lotus has just sprouted) = must take the exam to adjust scores. and work that is overdue, respectively
